Moderato

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure. The lyrics are as follows:

They say it's in Heav - en that all An - gels dwell, But I've come to Per - haps in the fu - ture I'll meet her a - gain, In that world where learn they're on earth just as well; And how would I know that the no one knows sor - row or pain; And when that time comes and the like could be so, If I had - n't found one down here be - low:

last word is said, Then place on my bos - om, her band of red:

CHORUS Tenderly

A sweet lit-tle An-gel that went o'er-the sea, With the em-blem of God in her hand, — A won-der-ful An-gel who brought there to me, The sweet of a war fur-rowed land — The crown on her head was a rib-bon of red, A sym-bol of all that's di-vine, — Tho' she called each a bro-ther, she's more like a moth-er, Sal-va-tion Las-sie of mine. A mine.

Sing on to Victory with 'Songs of Cheer'

HERE it is—the song book of America—a Pocket Book of Songs—the soul of America's war-time spirit expressed in songs of cheer. Here are the songs our boys sing when they march away—the choruses they sing in trench and dugout over there—the songs they'll sing when they come marching home from victory. All of them are songs of cheer, that you love to hear, and sing and play.
